Japanese Paper Condemned.

The "Japan Gazettu" says editorially Some time ago we, in common with other foreign newspripers in Japan, called attention to the serious mischief being done by "Tokyo Puck," an alleged-comic illustratod weekly in defiling the status of the wife of one of Japan's representatives in a foreign country besides lampooning in an insulting way some of Japan's leading statesmen. For a time "Puck" seemed to COAL DEPARTMENT realize its irresponsibility but it has broken out again in a new and more dangerous way, It is now openly arging international violence by Japan upon China, accompanying the counsel with insult conveyed by text and illustration. On March 10 it published an "Anti-China Number," which fairly recked with At, ARO 5th Edition, Western Union taunts calculated to incite a breach of international peace. The front cover shows a full-page cartoon of a caricatured Chinaman, with a spyglass, on the look out for the American battleship fleet (indicated in a vignette each vessel flying the stars and stripes), the text in English being: The Chinese: "Why, Japs, angry for the soizure of Tatsu maru? Impertinent! Pll answer when the Yankee Squadron comes to these shores. Confucius said that it's a great pleasure to see a friend from a remote land. But how long! I wish it CHINKIANO: Messes Granino & Co. would reach here quickly!" 'Another picture shows a Chinaman in the form of a jumping jack brandishing a stick, while a caricatured Kaiser pulls the string; the text reads: "China has assumed a strong attitude. Queer! wait until the SULF MENTS for Miyan and Kiehidaka wire puller is detected." Another shows a Chinese boar apparently snorting defiance, while, behind a Russian bear and a

> Gorman wolf are stealing its property: 818 the text reading: "The poor boar of China does not suspect the Bear robbing Mongolia and the Wolf licking Shantung. There are many other insulting references to China besides these, which are quoted as having special international suggestiveness likely to affront other friendly foreign Powers. But perhaps the worst feature in the number from the standpoint of a desire for pence is the double-page cartoon showing a full-page Japanese soldier pinning down with his bayonet what is supposed to be a helpless Chinese estfish about one-third the size, the remaining space being devoted to a sketch of the Premier endeavouring to suppres the same cutfish (now right side up and confidently wearing an Imperial crown) by means of a gourd on which appears a supposed likeness to the features of the Minister for Foreign Affair. The text runs : "Salonji desires to catch the eat-fish of China with the gourd of Hayashi, but naturally all in vain. Better catch it with a bayonet." The idea is that both cat-fish and gourd bein, smooth any would be hopeless and is founded on the Japanese proverb : Anahita wa hyotannamazu da. The ostensible reason of the cartoon is to condemn the diplomacy of the Japanese Calinet, but the presentation of and an open incitement to war. We pany will be CLOSED from the 9th to learn from Japanese papers to-day that this insulting "Anti-China Number" "Tokyo Puck" has now reached Peking. A Peking telegram to the "Jiji" says that 480 copies were specially sent to various Government offices there, and many Chinese GREEN ISLAND CEMENT CO., LD. officials are indigmant at the rude caricatures published by "Puck." The "Jiji's" Pekaction is highly detrimental to good international relations. With this comment will concur, but it seems that some check should be set upon this enfant terrible to chievous international tactics. While censorship is properly only allowable during a state of war and Japan is happily not on such terms with her neighbour, there are conditions prevailing between them which render their international relations particularly delicate and sensitive just now, making such provocative insults as those distributed generally by the "Tokyo Pack" peculiarly dangerous. a serious financial problem if steps are not immediately taken to replace the Chinese. The Colonial Secretary, Mr.

Smuts, has brought forward a plan of ob-between indentured Chinese and inden-beyond the vulgar understanding. This endeavour to wriggle out of an engagement which was unwisely entered into,

has drawn from certain quarters criticism of the suggested continuance of the policy of importing coloured labour

The answer of Mr Sumts to these criticisms is worth quoting. He said desirableness of substituting white for coloured labour in the mining industry,

there are objections to indentured

natives of China. However, the Transvar

Government is only following the exam-

CHARTER PARTY CLAIM.

The Judgment.

The Chief Justice, Sir. F. The plaintiffs chartered the vessel for the voyage from Saigon to Hongkong, to carry a full and complete carge of rice, and, or other lawful

In delivering judgment His Honour said : I could not have brought myself to believe that even if 'mixed cargo' meant, not what I thought, but rice, flour, and/or paddy, plus some other merchandise, the addition of even 30 tons of fish, being so small a proportion of the whole cargo. would have made the carge 'mixed' within Clause 17. (From Our Correspondent.) CANTON, April 14.

There is a conflict between the tea merchants and the passenger junks here. It appears that jank owners have been exporting tea.in large quantities on which no custom duties have been paid and as consequence they are in a position to place the commodity on the market at a much lower price than the merchants who have to pay heavily on their exports. The tea merchants have approached the authorities for redress. The Viceroy is stated to have taken up the matter at once, and ir future every protection will be extended to the tea merchants with a view to furthering business.

HAINAN GOLD MINES.

Cantonese Secures Concession

A Cantonese named Foo has obtaine a concession from the Chinese Government to work mines in Hainan near Hongkong. It has been known for some time that there are large deposits of gold, tin, coal and iron in Hainan, and it is said that the concession granted to Mr Foo is a very valuable one, the alluvial soil bearing a high percentage of tin-ore in many places, whilst in other parts of the concession, which is about 17,000 acres in extent, the washdirt, from which gold in large quantities is obtainable in many places, has been struck only 3 or 4 feet below the surface.

At this stage ultimate victory could have been said to belong toeither eleven and after the restart it looked as if the King Alfred's would pull off the honours. But it was not to be so. AMERICA AND VENEZUELA.

Question Of An Ultimatum.

NEW YORK, March 10. A tolegram-to the "New York Tribune" from Washington states that the correspondence between the United States and Venezuela, when laid before the Senate, will show grave discourtesy on the part of Vencuela. The State Department made every possible effort to obtain courtesy and justice from the Castro Administration, and Mr Root, Secretary of State, now admits that he has done everything that it is in his power to do, and that further netion rests with Congress. According to the view of the State Department, the telegram says, the United States must deliver an ultimatum and follow it up with force, or ! else complacently submit to treatment from Venezuela which European Powers would respond to by taking immediate reprisals. "Both President Roosevelt and Mr Root," the telegram proceeds, "believe that Preeident Castro should be made to feel the Damaged Packages must be left in the Godowns for examination by the Consignee's and the Company's representative at an appointed hour. All Claims must be force, and it is countly problematical. resented within ten days of the steamer's force, and it is equally problematical arrival here, after which date they cannot whether the United States could gracefully mitted after the Goods have left the of the work performed by the country, and undertake such an unpleasant task, in view especially of the Administration, in promoting international peace. Yet officials ask whether the people and Congress wish the Government to submit to contumelious treatment at the hands of semi-civilised and wholly uncouth South American dictatorship. This is precisely the question which the Adibinistraton expects Congress, which will shortly have the correspondence before it, to answer."

CHINA SQUADRON GUNNERY

The congratulations which have been showered upon the China Squadron for its superb' display of gunnery, both in the gun-laying tests and the battle practice, should nerve the handymen for still greater achievements this yearsays the "L. and C. Express." The China Squadron will have its work out out for it, as at least four other squadrons are determined to have a better look in on the next opportunity. It is this healthy spirit of rivalry and emulation which keeps the gunnery up to the standard it should attain. A curious result of the improved gunnery is the greater expenditure of money upon targets, these having been knocked into rags and splinters latterly. However, it is an item of expenditure which the taxpayers will cheerfully accede to.

SOLDIER STORIES.

No ! WITH THE FLAS IN BRITISH

INDIA.

retired British soldier, Mr Byron Whitehead of Leicoster, has been felling his experiences with the Army "out East" just lately, and whilst his outhus been for tropical sights and sounds does not equal that of the here of Kipling's song "Mandalay", he has much that is interest ing and aluable to record. It was to a journalist belonging to the staff of an important English newspaper that Mr White head related the following particulars of his life's history. "I was reared in barracks, and when in later years 1 enlisted, my military service led me to many countries. For years l served in India; also twelve months in Aden (a spot detested by overy soldier) then in Burma, and feally I went through the South African War with the 2nd Lincolns "This long and active service told on me at last in the form of surious rilments, but the worst enemy I had to face was a disordered liver, with acute indigestion.
